Dear Victory Warrior:

It is with great pleasure that I welcome you to the 15th Regimental Signal Brigade, the largest Signal Brigade in the U.S. Army. This Brigade is comprised of four Signal Battalions: 369th Signal Battalion, 447th Signal Battalion, 73d Ordnance Battalion and the 551st Signal Battalion which includes a Signal School Detachment at Fort Meade, Maryland.

Over 1,300 highly motivated military and civilians are charged with the mission to produce expeditionary Warriors with full spectrum competencies necessary to live the Soldier's Creed and contribute successfully to their first unit of assignment. We train over 12,000 Soldiers a year who will make an immediate contribution to the Army upon completion of their training.

I honestly believe there is no job more satisfying than the development of our Soldiers who will become our future leaders. Whether you are coming here as an Instructor, Drill Sergeant, Training Developer, or support cadre, you will join the ranks of those whose wartime mission is to produce technically and tactically proficient Signal and Ordnance Warriors through tough, realistic, and relevant training. Our goal is that Soldiers leave this phase of training with demonstrated confidence, competence and discipline in order for them to make an immediate contribution to their first unit of assignment. You will discover that this assignment will be one of the most complex, challenging and rewarding in your career. I have the greatest confidence that you will do your best to train and prepare the next generation of Warriors to the greatest of your abilities.

I encourage you to take an opportunity to familiarize yourself with TRADOC regulations, the Brigade, its policies, procedures, and newcomer information through our web page located at www.gordon.army.mil/15rsb. If you are not familiar with the Greater Augusta area, you will find a wealth of information to answer your questions located on the newcomer relocation information link on the Fort Gordon home page (www.gordon.army.mil).

Your sponsor will be contacting you shortly to begin assisting you in your relocation to Fort Gordon. If you haven't received a sponsor, you may request one through our web page. Meanwhile, if you have any immediate questions, please contact the Brigade at (706) 791-8314/ 8315 (DSN) 780-8314/8315 or e-mail: lauren.holley@gordon.army.mil

Upon your arrival, I look forward to welcoming you in person to our team.

Sincerely,

FRANK G. PENHA
COL, SC
Commanding
